

Thank you for allowing the opportunity to comment regarding the proposed mandatory recording of all programming from morning through night. As a small market broadcaster, this would be prohibitively expensive and potentially resources beyond the anticipated financial investment.

Is there a more efficient way to accomplish the goal of this proposed rulemaking?

Thank you for your consideration.

Jason Arnold
General Manager